

Urban History Seminar: 2015 -2016 Chicago History Museum

1601 N. Clark Street
Chicago, IL 60614
312-799-2012
crovato@chicagohistory.org

Reception @ 5:45 pm, dinner @ 6:15 pm, and program @ 7:00 pm

Reservations are $25: purchase by phone 312-642-4600 or

Online: <http://www.chicagohistory.org/planavisit/upcomingevents/lectures-and-seminars/>

ADVANCE RESERVATIONS FOR DINNER ARE ESSENTIAL

September 17 2015	LaDale Winling	Virginia Tech	The Working Class vs. The Creative Class: The Spatial Politics of University Growth in Cambridge, MA
October 15 2015	Michael McCulloch	University of Michigan	The Modern Worker's House and the Production of Fordist Culture in 1920s Detroit
November 19, 2015	Harold Platt	Loyola University Chicago	Sinking Chicago: The Politics of a Flood-prone Environment in the Age of Climate Change
January 14, 2016	John Boyer	University of Chicago	Building for a Long Future: The University of Chicago at 125
February 18 2016	Michael Shymanski	Historic Pullman Foundation	The People That Cared Enough to Make Pullman a National Monument
March 10, 2016	Dominic Pacyga	Columbia College Chicago	Slaughterhouse: Chicago's Union Stockyard and the World That It Made
April 14, 2016	Nancy Kwak	University of California San Diego	Development Aid and Home Ownership in the Global South
May 12, 2016	Richard Harris	McMaster University (Canada)	Why Neighborhoods Matter More Now

Michael H. Ebner
Lake Forest College

Ann Durkin Keating
North Central College

Russell Lewis
Chicago History Museum

D. Bradford Hunt
Newberry Library

CALL FOR PROPOSALS: 2016-2017

We encourage expressions of interest – from historians early in their careers as well as more senior scholars – who might wish to make a presentation during 2016-2017. We prefer that our speakers discuss their work-in-progress rather than a book or article already in print.

Please contact: Crovato@chicagohistory.org